

Argument Concepts—Anchor Chart

Argument	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In life-conflicts engaged in using language.</li> <li>• In writing-opinions that can be backed up with evidence.</li> </ul>
Debatable Claim:	Answer to a question: An opinion that is a matter of personal experience and values that must be backed up with evidence. Others can disagree with this claim. Also know as an opinion
What is your debatable claim on Otzi
Evidence	Proves the answer to the question Personal experience, confirmed facts, reasons, expert research and statistics that directly relate to and support a debatable claim. This is the proof your claim is valid.
Where will you find the evidence for your claim
Reasoning	Why the evidence supports your Claim Explanation of why the evidence supports your claim. This is your argument
What is your argument
Persuasion	Goal: To move another person or group to agree with a belief or position through argument, appeal, or course of action.